

Feel & Live Younger with ageLOC® R² PACK

Fion serves as Pharmanex Trainer for Nu Skin Malaysia and Brunei. Prior to joining Nu Skin, Fion was a research assistant whose responsibility was to assist in implementing a nationwide study related to nutrition and cognition of children. Fion graduated from Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM) in Bachelor of Science (Nutrition and Community Health) with First Class Honors and currently pursuing her study in Master of Science (Community Nutrition) at UPM. In her study, she specialized in human nutrition and health promotion at community level. Fion is also a member of Nutrition Society of Malaysia. As a nutritionist, Fion always helps others to improve quality of life by empowering them with nutrition information.

Have you ever felt tired, weighed down, sluggish, or unable to fully engage in an active life as you age? One noticeable sign of aging is that we will lose our youthful spark. Starting today, you have the power to feel youthful and vibrant again with ageLOC® R² Pack.
