Key Ingredients

Demonstration
Nutriol® Hair Fitness Treatment
The bioavailable mineral content of Nutriol® Hair Fitness Treatment can be measured with a conductivity pen.

Follow the steps below:
• Remove Hair Fitness Treatment cap without releasing powder.
• Pour the solution into a glass jar with a wider opening.
• Dip conductivity pen into the solution – record measurement.
• Using a new bottle of Nutriol® Hair Fitness Treatment, release the powder into the solution.
• Shake until mixed.
• Remove cap and test the conductivity.
• Compare this result with the solution-only measurement.

Minerals, when dissolved in solution, help conduct an electrical charge. A higher mineral content will create a higher conductivity. Nutriol® Hair Fitness Treatment has a high conductivity, demonstrating that it is rich in nutrients and minerals. Research indicates that the hair follicle requires multiple nutrients and minerals for optimal vitality and abundance.

Did You Know...
Unique sea story
The ocean is the largest deposit of life resources on our planet and also the last exploited by man. This incredible rich “eighth” continent is the cradle of life. It is in fact from the sea, three million years ago, that the first form of life developed: microscopic algae. Because of an extraordinarily rich composition, all the essential life elements are contained in algae.
